THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS LISTED FOR TAXATION HERE

Mason County Is One of the Wealthiest Counties in the State-Few Farmers But Who Had to File Income Tax Returns.

Saturday was the last day for filing income tax returns and it was one of Mason county Saturday by one of the the busiest days in the history of the officers of the State Red Cross organwere in line at the office door most all this county to assist in making a day and the office was open late to accommodate those who had put off filing their returns until the last minute to keep them from paying the heavy penalty attached by the gover ment to those who did not file their than is asked of them. returns promptly.

Although total figures will not be available for several days, it is known that many thousands of dollars were listed for taxation in this county. Ma son county is purely a tobacco countobacco farmers have been handling big money. For this reason Mason county will rank among the wealthiest counties in the state when it comes to paying income tax and it is certain that there will be very few countles in the state who will report more income tax payers than Mason.

MAYSVILLE WILL NOW HAVE BETTER LAUNDRY SERVICE

Beginning Next Monday - Modern Laundry Company Will Introduce New System of Collection

An aged-old custom considers Monday as wash day. In the Modern Laundry every day is wash day. But of course, everybody's washing cannot be done on the same day. Heretofore fully sixty per cent. of laundry patrons have sent their work to the laundry on Monday.

Thus, laundries have been delaged with work the fore part of the week. The help have begun the week discouraged and dissatisfied, and the result has often been reflected in the work and service.

This unequal distribution of the work has been quite as much to the disadvantage of the patron as it has to the laundry. All employes do their best work when they clearly understand just what it is, and when they can see "over the top" of it.

Every day a certain amount of the work will be brought into the plants and an equal amount delivered to patrons. Many patrons have unthinkingly, demanded special service. Given it once, some have acquired the habit, Special service is expensive to the laundry and patrons alike. There are occasions when special service is needed and will be given, but these occasions are few and will be greatly reduced under this new plan. The foregoing, and many other seemingly small items have been and are a big factor in the overhead expenses of a laundry; and along with the war, higher wages, increased cost of materials, etc., have been responsible for the higher prices which the laundry owners have been compelled to charge. Neither the public nor the laundry owner can control the prices of material nor the wages of labor. But the laundry owners, with the hearty co-operation of the public. can, and will control some of the items of overhead expense, and prevent a further increase in laundry prices, if indeed, they do not eventually lower them to a considerable ex-

One-fifth of the work will be collected Monday, onefifth Tuesday and so on until Friday. In the same manner, one-fifth of the work will be delivered each day. There will be but one collection and one delivery each week on each route. All collection and deliveries of laundry work will be made each morning before noon. Telephone calls not being on salesman's route will be made in the afternoon each day. If the driver serving you calls at nine o'clock one week, you may expect him at the same hour each week, almost to the minute. The same applies to delivery. Your driver will deliver your bundle at the same hour each week. Each customer will be requested to have the cash ready. There can be no variation from the foregoing, as it would soon defeat the purpose of the plan which is-better work and better service for all. No special rush work will be called for and delivered. Work brought to the office and called for may be had in shorter time than by the regular system. The foregoing plan is now in operation in several cities, and has been received by the public most graciously, because its advantages are so apparent and its practical value so soon established. It looks more revolutionary than it is. It is simply breaking up a custom, which is a custom only, and by no

Private Patrick R. O'Devlin, formerfirst class printer, who was very seriously wounded many times in the great war before the United States en- | Committee. tered the conflict, spent today in Maysville and was a very pleasant visitor at the Public Ledger office.

O'Devlin was operating a linotype on the Liverpool (England) Courier when England entered the war and he immediately volunteered and was assigned to the famous Middlesex Regiment. He was later transfered to the famous Royal Irish mounted snipers county. and with that great regiment went through the greatest battles of the war. He took part in such great battles as Mons, Dixmude, Ypres, La-Bosse, Neuve Chapelle, Armenteers and Messines. During this time he was sent to Salonika and Palestine with the Irish snipers and there he saw five months service. In all he saw two years and nine months service in the British army and he came out of it badly crippled.

He was wounded seriously five times and twice was overcome with gas. His left shoulder is entirely gone. His left leg is stiff from shrapnel in the knee. The left arm is swol en all out of proportion and shrapnel has torn away the most of his teeth and cut away a part of upper lip.

During the early part of 1917 Private O'Devlin was very seriously dispatches from general headquarters. He was awarded a war badge, of which he is very proud and a communication from His Majesty, the king of England, is highly prized by him.

Being a native of the United States nd having folks in this country, he was sent here on his request by the British government when he was honorably discharged because of his ounds in 1917.

HELD TO GRAND JURY ON CHARGE OF CUTTING BOY

Darnall Emmons Held By Judge Whitaker to the Next Grand Jury on a Charge of Cutting and Wounding With Intent to Kill.

The examining trial of Darnall Emmons, of the county, arrested on a charge of cutting and wounding with intent to kill was held before Police Judge John L. Whitaker in Police Court this afternoon. Emmons was held to the Grand Jury on the charge and was released on bond in the sum of three hundred dollars which he promptly gave

It will be remembered that last week Emmons was arrested when he cut a small negro boy by the name of Ben Slater in Jacob Caproni's place in Market street

The evidence offered by the prosecution was to the effect that Emmons. who was drinking, came into the place. He staggered against a colored boy who pushed him and he stepped on Slater's toes where upon Slater complained. ### THE HUM OF INDUSTRY

You can sing no song of prosperity save to the accompaniment of the hum of industry. When industry lags, prosperity takes wings. Factory smoke may mar the brightness of skies, but it works wonders with the brightness in the home, and its brightness we are needing in the homes of America today.

We've had enough of gloom to last for a long time. Bringing the boys back will help tremendously. But if the boys come back to a poverty of jobs it will be another story. Some of them have come to just that thing.

To make it worse, America has acquired the habit of good times during the last four years. The world war caused the nations of Europe simply to bombard us with orders of all sorts that enforced prosperity.

Everything went ballooning, wages along with the rest. The average man made more money add more easily than he ever had in his life. Not infrequently habits of extravagance developed.

But the fact is that American generally expect these conditions to continue. There is no reason why they should not, why the bottom should fall out of things at all. We have a far better opportunity than our foreign neighbors, yet we will have to do our part to on the livestock owners of the counmake the most of these opportunities.

Uncle Sam owes a tremendous amount of money to American industries. Something like $2,000,000,000, it has been stated. And he wants to pay it. The industries need it to branch out along independent lines, and the Victory-Liberty Loan will pay these debtswill help keep things going at high speed, and stave off industrial stagnation.

That's exactly what all of us want to see done. We want things to boom. How much our bond purchases will indicate. So help make

PERSHING ON THE Y. M. C. A.

In these days when unkind things are being said about the Y. M. C. A. and the part it played in the war, itq might be well to bear in mind what General Pershing says of this organization's work at the fighting front.

A dispatch from Chaumont, France, says that the American Y. M. C. A., at its own request, has been relieved of its work in maintaining the post exchanges with the American army. Correspondence has been exchanged between General Pershing and E. C. Carter, in charge of the Y. M. C. A. with the army, resulting in this decision. On January 29, Mr. Carter wrote to General Pershing, saying that duties of the Y. M. C. A. in promoting athletics and entertainments were so heavy that he thought it should be relieved of the exchange work.

General Pershing in his reply said:

"As you correctly state, the Y. M. C. A. undertook the management of the post exchanges at my request at a time when it was of the greatest importance that no available soldier should be taken away from the vital military functions of training and fighting. As the reasons which impelled me at that time to request you to undertake this work no longer exist, I am glad to approve of your suggestion.

"In making this change permit me to thank you for the very valuable services and assistance which the Y. M. C. A. has rendered to the American expeditionary force in handling these exchanges. Handicapped by a shortage of tonnage and land transportation the Y. M. C. A. has by extra exertion served the army better than could have been expected, and you may be assured that its aid has been a large factor in the final great accomplishment of the American army."

We trust that this will tend to further silence those who would knock America's great second line of defense in the Great War.

AMERICAN BOYS IN PRISON BAND

Doughboys Have Lively Time in Big German Band, Report Says.

Paris-Stone walls do not a prison make nor iron bars a cage, the American released from Rastatt prison camp corroborate, for wooden posts and barb wire formed their prison and there were bars of music exuded by the tyenty-piece band and eight-piece orchestra and a bugle corps. The stories of softening the prisoners' lot with their own music is one which the musicians have told with gusto as an example of their high morale which deeply impressed their German guards to the extent of being subtle American propaganda. The musical instruments, by the way, were furnished the priosners by the American Y. M. C. A. which also provided them with books, athletic goods and other necessities.

Concerts were given every night, the band played at foohball and baseball games and once the prisoners. through the intercession of the Y. M. C. A. Cabinet, were allowed to rent the largest theater in Rastatt and put on a show of their own compositionand it was some show. The band was the pride of the prison. It was ororganized by Eergt. H. A. Bergman, 21 Townsend St., New Haven, who also conducted it after the first conductor, Clyde Gimsly of Salina, Kas., became ill. The other members were Lawrence Miller, 1515 Third Avenue, Pa.; Frank McNeese, New Brighton, Pa.; Corpl. Clarence Mohn, 206 S. Prince St., Lancaster, Pa.; Earl Dickerson, Havana, Ill.; Grover Johnson, Stoyestown, Pa.; Max Berg, 5626 Calumet Ave., Chicago; Lloyd W. ### INTEREST TAKEN IN THE COMING OF LUKE MCLUKE

Prominent Newspaper Funny Man Will Deliver Lecture at Washington Theater on Next Wednesday Evening.

Considerable interest is taken here in the coming to Maysville on next Wednesday evening of Luke McLuke for a lecture at the Washington Opera

Luke does not come to Maysville upon any special mission but simply at the request of a number of his friends. Messrs. Ferd Hechinger, Bak- Street, Fifth Ward. er Wood and J. Barbour Russell were instrumental in his deciding to come to Maysville and these gentlemen have rented the Washington Opera House for the purpose.

ernoon that the prices for the lecture will be within reach of all. Prices charged will be 50 cents for the first floor, 35 cents for the balcony and 25 cents for the gallery.

Luke McLuke is well known to every newspaper reader in this whole section of the country. He is probably the most popular paragrapher in the whole of the United States. His stuff is read everywhere over this and other countries. He is said to be a very interesting talker and delivers from the platform the same sort of thoughts to which he gives expression through his typewriter.
